Executive / Career Coach Referral Program

Through the Executive / Career Coach Referral Program, you can actively manage your career by working with fellow alumni who are executive and/or career coaches.

Program Guidelines

- All providers are Brown alumni who have been screened and vetted in advance by Alumni Relations staff. See below for summary information on each provider, including background, areas of expertise, geographic location, website links, and contact information.
- This is a fee-based offering incentivized for the Brown alumni community. Rates are available through the providers and may vary by services sought, market, etc. When talking with providers, please be sure to mention that you are a Brown alumna/us.
- Selection of a provider is determined by the alumna/us seeking the service. Alumni Relations staff will not make recommendations regarding working with specific providers.
- Service providers participating in this program are in no way affiliated with Brown University, the Office of Alumni Relations, or the Brown Alumni Association (BAA). These professionals are independent contractors and are not being compensated or retained by Brown University, the Office of Alumni Relations, or the Brown Alumni Association (BAA).
